

Return or Cancellation Policies

It is our company policy to not accept returns or cancellations. All products are custom made to order. In order for us to even consider a return the following conditions are going to be strictly adhered to with absolutely no exceptions. If you are agreeable to the following terms we will inspect the bed when it arrives. If you are going to transport the bed yourself you must make an appointment time with Jimmy.

1. The Bed has to be returned to us in its original crate.
2. The Bed has to be in the exact same conditions as it was when it was crated.
3. We will not absorb the shipping either to or from your location.
4. On top of the shipping cost a 20 percent restocking fee will apply.
5. Since the sales tax has already been paid to the State of Florida there will have to apply to for a credit on the sales tax which can take 15 to 30 days.
